WHY SHOULD I GET INVOLVED?

- FSCJ Student Life provides opportunities for students to interact with others with similar interests, as well as those whose thoughts and values may differ from your own.
- Joining a Student Organization may reveal unexplored career fields.
- Events and engagement opportunities allow students to gain hands-on opportunities to practice what they learn in class.
- Student Life helps students build connections outside the classroom with other students, faculty, staff and community leaders.
- Engagement can help you discover what kind of leader you want to be.
- By getting involved, you can practice your time management and work-life balance skills.
- Student Life opportunities are provided to help students acquire skills that may not learned through traditional classroom instruction.
- Student Life initiatives can help increase your self-awareness and sense of belonging.
- Through participation in College activities outside the classroom, you can refine your interpersonal communication, problem solving and conflict resolution skills.
- Student Life activities are a chance to just have fun!

Sasha Simmons will share best practices for networking, developing leadership skills, discovering your passion and maintaining motivation. For more information, visit sashasimmons.com or contact Student Life and Leadership at getinvolved@fscj.edu.

THE MAN BEHIND THE WOMAN

Featuring FSCJ Adjunct Instructor Mark Kerrin

NC: Wednesday, September 4, noon; Room E-166

Often times we celebrate the great civil rights leaders of the past and present, but what about the people who support them in their journeys? The Man Behind the Woman is a chance to learn about those experiences. Join us as we welcome FSCJ Adjunct Instructor Mark Kerrin, former security guard of the late great Rosa Parks. Don't miss this amazing yet humbling conversation. For more information, please contact Diversity and Social Change at diversity.socialchange@fscj.edu.

INVOLVEMENT FAIRS

Get involved with FSCJ's student organizations and discover volunteer opportunities in the Jacksonville community. Representatives from community non-profit agencies and FSCJ student organizations will be present to talk about their missions, volunteer positions and resources. STONEWALL: 50 YEARS OF PRIDE

DC: Wednesday, September 26, 11 a.m.-3 p.m.; A-1058

In 1969, after enduring years of oppression, victimization, violence and hostility, a group of bar patrons fought back against police that had targeted the institution due to its rumored patrons' sexual orientation. The aftermath of the riots is considered by many to be the birth of Gay Pride and Gay Activism. Fifty years later, we celebrate and bring awareness to the event that changed history. For more information, please contact Diversity and Social Change at diversity.socialchange@fscj.edu.

Following the workshop, a counselor from the Student Assistance Program will be available if students need to speak with someone. For more information, visit secretregrets.com or contact Student Life and Leadership at getinvolved@fscj.edu.

NOVEMBER

DON'T MISS OUT ON ALL THE EVENTS PLANNED FOR NOVEMBER

For a complete list, visit fscj.edu/events. You can also check out the Community Calendar, the Happenings Newsletter and social media.

SPOKEN WORD WORKSHOP

Facilitated by Kita Purdy (Lady G) & Tearyn Warwood (LoveReigns)

NC: Monday, November 18, 11 a.m.; Auditorium (C-126)

SC: Tuesday, November 19, 12:30 p.m.; Wilson Center, Lakeside Room

DC: Wednesday, November 20, 1 p.m.; Advanced Technology Center (T-140)

KC: Thursday, November 21, 11 a.m.; D-120

DC: Tuesday, November 26, 11 a.m.; G-1709

Tearyn Warwood (LoveReigns) has written poetry since she was a child and has performed spoken word all over the country. She is currently teaching poetry enrichment at a local public school and facilitating writing workshops. She is the co-founder of The Cypher Open Mic Poetry & Soul, which has operated for more than 10 years, as well as the founder of Artis(Tree) Live and The Artis(Tree) Youth Project.

Nikita Purdy (Lady G) has been performing spoken word in Jacksonville since 2003. Part of the award-winning international poetry group, Black on Black Rhyme, Lady G's words are delivered off the tip of a passionate tongue, forged from experience and resonating with the wisdom of a conscious community. Together, LoveReigns and Lady G will facilitate an hour-long spoken word workshop. At the conclusion, students will understand the basic steps of being able to compose their thoughts in the form of spoken word.

For more information, please visit iamlove reigns.com and ladygthapoet.com.

SUIT AND TIE

DC: Thursday, November 7, noon–1:30 p.m.; Advanced Technology Center (T-140)

Over the past few years, FSCJ Diversity and Social Change has taken great pride in honoring some of the most amazing women we have in both our campus and Jacksonville communities. But now it is time to suit up for those amazing men. Join us in celebration as we honor the inspiring men within our FSCJ family. These are the men in our communities, classrooms and offices who lead by example, showing us what great men are truly capable of. Come out and support them. For more information, contact Diversity and Social Change at diversity.socialchange@fscj.edu.

ACTIVITIES

PERFORMING GROUPS

Students with musical or dramatic talent might enjoy participating in one of FSCJ's performing groups. The Chorale, danceWORKS, Jazz Ensemble and Symphonic Band perform locally and throughout the southeast.

Students from any campus may participate in the many aspects of theatrical production as well. Collegewide productions are full scale and allow participation for actors and stage hands in a community theater setting. Campus productions enable students to develop their talent through acting, directing, stagecraft and costuming.

Contact the appropriate person below for your particular interest:

Jazz Ensemble: South Campus: John Thomas, (904) 646-2113

Symphonic Band: South Campus: Paul Weikle, (904) 646-2010

Chorale: South Campus: Thomas Shapard, (904) 646-2364

Theatre: South Campus: Ken McCullough, (904) 646-2042

danceWORKS: South Campus: Rebecca Levy, (904) 646-2352

ATHLETICS

FSCJ participates in the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) in seven sports: Baseball, Men's and Women's Basketball, Men's and Women's Cross Country, Softball and Volleyball. Students may request an opportunity to tryout through the respective team coach, however, there are eligibility requirements and limits on scholarship opportunities. Please refer to the website and the respective sport page for information on how to contact the coach.

It is highly recommended that students request a tryout at the beginning of the term in order to compete in time for a scholarship and to meet NJCAA requirements. The Department of Athletics also offers opportunities for students to gain valuable hands-on experience in sports media and event management with our webcasting team, event management team or serving as a student assistant coach. For more information, visit our website at gobluewave.com or email us at athletics@fscj.edu.

FITNESS CENTERS

FSCJ has five fitness centers conveniently located on Downtown, Kent, North and South Campuses, as well as at the Deerwood Center. The fitness centers are open to students, faculty and staff with identification free of charge Monday through Thursday during normal business hours and select hours on Fridays. For more information, visit fscj.edu/student-services/student-life/fitness-centers

For more information, please contact your campus Student Life & Leadership office or email us at getinvolved@fscj.edu.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

SPECIAL EVENTS/OPEN GYM

The Athletics Department also offers "Third Thursday" intramural activities and special events throughout the academic year. Third Thursday events include activities like 3-on-3 basketball, soccer, tennis, Frisbee golf on the lawn or in the gym. Third Thursdays are typically held at South Campus with special events taking place at multiple campuses throughout the academic year. For 2019-20, we are planning a dodgeball tournament, kickball tournament, corn hole contest and badminton tournament.

You can also join your friends in the gym at South Campus during "Open Gym," normally held on Tuesdays and Thursdays during lunch. For more information, email athletics@fscj.edu or visit gobluewave.com/documents/intramurals.

BASKETBALL HIGH SCORE TOURNAMENTS

Think you're a pretty good shot in basketball? Let's see how many points you can score in a minute. This is a team game, so find a partner to gather your rebounds if you miss. Both you and your partner will take turns shooting. The team with the highest total score from each campus tournament will advance to the Collegewide Basketball High Score Tournament at Kent Campus on Friday, November 22 from 1-3 p.m.

KC: Wednesday, November 6, noon-2 p.m., Courtyard

DWC: Thursday, November 14, 11 a.m.-1 p.m., Courtyard

DC: Tuesday, November 19, noon-2 p.m., Courtyard

NC: Wednesday, November 20, 11 a.m.-1 p.m., Courtyard

For more information, please contact your campus Student Life & Leadership office or email us at getinvolved@fscj.edu.

FLAG FOOTBALL TOURNAMENT

This 4-on-4 co-ed Flag Tournament is open to any currently enrolled FSCJ student. For more information or to sign up to play, please contact FSCJ Athletics at athletics@fscj.edu.

NC: Friday, November 8, noon-6 p.m.

LEAD

STUDENT LEADER POSITIONS

All student leaders must be currently enrolled in at least six credit hours at FSCJ, have a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.0 (Student Ambassadors 2.5) and maintain that minimum while serving. They must also be able to commit to at least 10-15 hours per week. The requirements for some positions may be greater than the minimum however.

Please read the position descriptions below for more information:

CAMPUS STUDENT PROGRAMMING BOARD

The Campus Student Programming Board (CSPB) is the programming wing of the Student Government Association that provides co-curricular activities for FSCJ students to enjoy. The CSPB consists of student leaders that plan and coordinate activities at each campus and center. CSPB duties include planning, promoting and coordinating events. Please contact your campus/center Student Life and Leadership advisor for more information.

FOOD PANTRY LEADERS

Food Pantry Leaders will support the mission of the FSCJ H.O.P.E Food Pantry and assist in the running and maintenance of the pantry. Duties can include organizing, stocking and sorting food donations, and gathering and unloading food donation bins. Food Pantry Leaders will also assist student customers and help plan food drive events. Please contact the Food Pantry representative for more information.

RESIDENT ASSISTANT

The Resident Assistant (RA) provides programs and services that foster the holistic social, academic and personal development of students residing in FSCJ Student Housing. The RA develops a sense of community among residents as members of a floor and active participants in the residence life system. RAs serve as resources, positive role models and peer educators to residents. The RA enforces the rules and policies of FSCJ Student Housing and acts as a liaison between residents and College administration. Please contact the Resident Assistant representative directly for more information and requirements.

STUDENT AMBASSADORS

Student Ambassadors are students who lead campus tours for new and future students, provide information about FSCJ and represent the College at different events. Students must have good communication and customer service skills. Student Ambassadors need to be able to commit to 15 hours a week at their campus of choice, have a cumulative GPA of 2.5 and complete a FAFSA application. Please contact your campus representative for more information.

STUDENT VOLUNTEER COORDINATORS

Student Volunteer Coordinators act as the primary liaison for volunteer and service partnerships between FSCJ students and the community. Coordinators mentor and facilitate FSCJ students through volunteerism in ways that are mutually beneficial to the student and the community. They must have an interest in volunteerism and the ability to learn and work in the community. They must be enrolled and maintain at least six credit hours or 180 clock hours as a Post-Secondary Adult Vocational Student (PSAV). Please contact the Volunteer Coordinator representative for more information.

All candidates should complete and/or turn in the following documents:

- Student Leader Application
- 2 Letters of Reference
- Resume (Please take advantage of our Career Development resources)
- Copy of your unofficial transcript
- Class schedule for the term you're applying for
- Completed FAFSA

To download the application, visit fscj.edu/student-services/student-life

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

FSCJ currently has 60+ student organizations. You can find a full list, the Student Organization Charter kit and the Student Organization Handbook at fscj.edu/student-services/student-life/student-life-leadership/clubs-organizations. You may also utilize the Community portal to find organizations to join based on interests, meeting frequency, meeting times and locations. Student organizations can use Community to advertise events, track meeting attendance, manage membership rosters, poll members and share documents. Students may also track their participation which can be shared with employers and other institutions of higher education when transferring.

Instructions on how to use Community can be found by logging in to myFSCJ, clicking on the Life @ FSCJ tab and selecting My Account > Documents. You will need to sign in with your FSCJ username and password. my.fscj.edu

FSCJ LEADERSHIP CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

The FSCJ Leadership Certificate Program is offered in the Fall and Spring Terms and is capped at 40 participants per term. To receive a certificate, recipients must attend a leadership retreat, online or in-person workshops and a leadership symposium. To RSVP your participation or for more information, please contact getinvolved@fscj.edu.

LEADERSHIP RETREAT

NAS: Saturday, October 19, 9 a.m.-5 p.m., Outdoor Education Center

NC: Wednesday, October 23, 1-2 p.m., A-117

NC: Wednesday, October 30, 1-2 p.m., A-117

NC: Wednesday, November 6, 1-2 p.m., A-117

NC: Wednesday, November 13, 1-2 p.m., A-117

LEADERSHIP SYMPOSIUM

NC: Friday, November 22, 9 a.m.-12:30 p.m., E-166

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

The FSCJ Student Government Association (SGA) serves as the official voice of the student body and provides a connection between the student body, faculty and College administration. SGA is governed by currently enrolled students and consists of representatives from each campus and center SGA. For more information, please visit fscj.edu/student-services/student-life/student-life-leadership/student-government-association-sga or contact sga@fscj.edu.

GET INVOLVED

TEDxFSCJ

TEDxFSCJ exists as a convener of conversations. Our mission is to place before the community the most important ideas possible and to help our audience, partners and volunteers grow both personally and professionally. Each year, we hold our annual conference in the spirit of “ideas worth spreading.” Our conference features speakers from across multiple disciplines who embody a diversity of experience, perspective and voice. We also host a series of informal salon events that focus on the ideas that animate and inspire the people of northeast Florida, from cutting-edge developments in technology and IT security to human rights, health care, and the visual and performing arts—to name but a few of the topics we’ve tackled. Join us as we explore the uncharted together. To learn more, visit us at tedxfscj.com.

VOLUNTEER SERVICE PROGRAMS

Volunteer Services offers opportunities for students to connect with the community by encouraging them to take a few hours out of their week to volunteer. Students learn how to work cohesively with different people to form teams as well as how to be a leader. Students can view volunteer events and RSVP at serve.fscj.edu. If you have additional questions about the areas of volunteerism, contact us at fscjvolunteers@fscj.edu.

CENTER FOR CULTURES, LANGUAGES AND SOCIETIES

The Center for Cultures, Languages and Societies is inspired by the diversity and richness of FSCJ's student body and multiple communities. Through the Center, students, faculty and staff have the opportunity to immerse themselves in various languages, arts and culture from around the globe. Students can engage in a variety of activities and programs at the dedicated space at Kent Campus (F-118A) where they can converse with others who speak a specific language, hold a book club, watch a television series or play video games, all in a language they desire to learn or teach others. The Center will be expanding to all FSCJ campuses. Be on the lookout for our Language Tables, ethnic oriented culinary experiences, gaming, news sharing, speakers and more! For more information, please contact c4clas@fscj.edu or visit fscj.edu/student-services/student-life/clas.

LIBRARY AND TUTORING SERVICES

The Library and Tutoring Services offers a variety of programs – including lectures, book clubs, escape rooms and more – designed to highlight the library's collections and services and support the College's academic programs and initiatives. You can keep up with library events on our calendar (libcal.fscj.edu/calendar/LLC) or by following us on Facebook (facebook.com/FSCJLLC).

ALLY DEVELOPMENT

Ally Development provides support and brings awareness to LGBTQ+ issues by developing programs and Safe Space curriculums. For more information, please contact diversity.socialchange@fscj.edu.

MENTORSHIP PROGRAMS

K.I.N.G.S and Project C.L.A.S.S. mentoring programs support students' educational and professional aspirations through academic enhancement, character enrichment, leadership and career development. For more information, please contact diversity.socialchange@fscj.edu.

HISTORY AND HERITAGE CELEBRATIONS

The purpose of history and heritage month celebrations is to provide a space to teach and learn about cultural history through Collegewide events. Months include Human Rights (January), Black History (February), Women's History (March), Diversity Awareness and LGBTQ+ (September), and Hispanic Heritage (October). For more information, please contact diversity.socialchange@fscj.edu.

FSCJ H.O.P.E. FOOD PANTRY

The FSCJ H.O.P.E. Food Pantry serves students by providing food and educational programs to students in need. The pantry provides students anonymous access to free non-perishable food products, made available by generous donations from the community. If you have questions about the FSCJ H.O.P.E. Food Pantry or need assistance, please contact us at foodpantry@fscj.edu. The Downtown Campus H.O.P.E. Food Pantry is located in Room C-101G (101 W. State St., Jacksonville, FL 32202) and the South Campus H.O.P.E. Food Pantry is located in Room F-103 (11901 Beach Blvd., Jacksonville, FL 32246). If you or a student that you know are facing food scarcity, but attend classes at another campus, please make a referral in your nearest Student Life Center for assistance.

20WEST HOUSING

Set right in the heart of downtown Jacksonville in the historic Lerner Building, FSCJ Student Housing offers a convenient and affordable housing opportunity for our students. Beautifully renovated to maintain the building's historical character, the 58 apartment-style living spaces are positioned on the second through sixth floors. FSCJ student housing offers the modern, comfortable conveniences of home with a trendy, urban twist. Residents enjoy access to FSCJ's Downtown Campus, dining and entertainment just steps from their front door. For more information, please visit fscj.edu/student-services/student-life/20-west-housing or contact housing@fscj.edu.

DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION PROGRAMS AND TRAININGS

Diversity and Inclusion programs and trainings address culturally inclusive topics that affect our diverse student populations. We engage the College through diversity retreats, workshops, ally training and educational presentations. Students will also have the opportunity to assist with training and programs. For more information, please contact diversity.socialchange@fscj.edu.
