Introduction

The twenty-eighth edition of the FJC Student Activities Calendar contains virtually a complete list of events taking place under the sponsorship of your Student Activities office as well as many other events sponsored by other departments.

You can attend most of these activities free-of-charge or be admitted at a sizeable discount.

The calendar also includes many of the deadlines you need to know about to keep academically abreast, plus plenty of room to insert your own notes and happenings!

Do you have a talent? Opportunities exist in music, drama, forensics, the Brain Bowl, photography intramural and recreational tournaments, student organization leadership roles, as well as a number of intercollegiate athletic teams.

FILM INSTITUTE

The FJC Student Activities Program in cooperation with The Film Institute of Jacksonville presents

CINEMA '84

The FJC Student Activities program in its fourth year of cooperation with the Film Institute of Jacksonville is proud to present another outstanding season of internationally recognized films, many award winners and many first run films never shown before in Jacksonville.

FJC students plus one guest admitted free with current registration I.D. Full-time FJC employees plus one guest admitted free with valid I.D.

Public admission available only from the Film Institute of Jacksonville, phone 743-5531, in a variety of season packages. No single film admissions available for the public.

Kent Campus Auditorium—Tuesday—7:30 p.m.

SEPT 25 DANTON—1983—Andrzej Wajda (French). The great Polish director's new film is an epic treatment of the famous conflict between Danton and Robespierre in a period of great turmoil in French history. Stars Gerard Depardieu and has created considerable controversy in France.

OCT 2 TIME STANDS STILL—1982—Peter Gothar (Hungarian)—99 mins. When the Russians march into Hungary, a rebel leaves for America, but his wife and children stay behind. The boys grow up surreptitiously copying American styles, playing and singing American songs, and rebelling against the drabness of life in Eastern Europe. Hailed by critics as the "break-through" film for the Hungarian cinema in the West.

OCT 9 CHAN IS MISSING—1982—Wayne Wang—80 mins. Made for less than $22,000, this is an astonishing first major work by an independent filmmaker. Set in San Francisco's Chinatown, the story concerns two taxi drivers who turn amateur detectives to solve the disappearance of an immigrant to whom they have entrusted their money.

OCT 16 FITZCARRALDO—1982—Werner Herzog (German)—157 mins. Klaus Kinsky plays Fitzcarraldo, a German opera devotee determined to bring grand opera to the 1900 Peruvian jungle. Incredible photography documents his attempt to move a steamship up the Amazon and across a stretch of land to a more navigable tributary. With Claudia Cardinale as his indulgent mistress.

OCT 23 DAYS OF HEAVEN—1978—Terrence Malick—95 mins. Exquisite mood-piece about a turbulent love triangle set against midwestern wheat harvests at the turn of the century. Stars Richard Gere, Brooke Adams, and Sam Shepard. Oscar for Best Cinematography.

OCT 30 SMITHEREENS—1982—Susan Seidelman—90 mins. This remarkable first feature by the 29-year-old director was made for $80,000 and was an official U.S. entry at Cannes. The story of a spunky 19-year-old who desperately wishes to become a rock star effectively captures the crazy energy of the rock clubs, sleazy bars, and tenement lofts of lower Manhattan.

NOV 6 VERONIKA VOSS—1983—Fassbinder (German). The final film of Fassbinder's postwar trilogy (Maria Braun & Lola) stars the beautiful Rosel Zech as a former UFA star who tries to convey an image of success despite the economic chaos around her.

NOV 13 NIGHTS OF CABIRIA—1957—Federico Fellini (Italian)—110 mins. Giulietta Masina as a prostitute dreaming of a rich, wonderful life but always finding the opposite. Basis for the Broadway musical and film Sweet Charity and one of Fellini's best.

NOV 20 THE ENTERTAINER—1960—Tony Richardson—97 mins. Seedy vaudevillian (Laurence Olivier) ruins everybody's life and won't catch on. A virtuoso performance by Olivier as the egotistical song-and-dance man. From the play of John Osborne, and co-starring Albert Finney and Alan Bates.

NOV 27 MY DINNER WITH ANDRE—1981—Louis Malle—110 mins. Wally Shawn and Andre Gregory discuss their philosophies for two hours over dinner. A unique film, written by its two principals, with moments of insight, drama, and warm humor.

COLLEGE ORGANIZATIONS

Academic Competition BRAIN BOWL

1982 State Grand Champions
1983 State Grand Champions

The 5-member team competes against other Florida community colleges. FJC was undefeated in capturing the state grand championships during 1982 and 1983. Each member of the team received $1000 in cash scholarships, an FJC scholarship grant plus scholarship offers from 4 major state universities. Interested? Contact your campus Student Activities office.

Drama FJC PLAYERS

This outstanding group annually presents five different productions at the South Campus. It has performed at the Florida Theatre Conference and it annually performs at the city-wide Greek Festival. For information contact Professor Sue Moore, South Campus, phone 646-2312.

Forensics Competition FORENSICS

If you have the knack for public speaking, FJC offers an opportunity for students to compete throughout the southeast in Oral Interpretation, in Extemporaneous, Impromptu and Persuasive speaking, and other forensic events. Students interested in qualifying for the Forensic Team should contact Professor Samuel Jackson, South Campus, phone 646-2370.

Music — Vocal THE CHORALE

Opportunities exist for qualified students to be members of FJC's performing vocal music groups. The groups perform throughout the city and on tours.

The group travels throughout the southeast. Interested students should contact Professor Judith Cloud, South Campus, phone 646-2027.

Academic Achievement PHI THETA KAPPA

This is a college-wide organization that recognizes outstanding academic achievement. Members participate in a variety of service projects as well as participating with both state and national organizations. Students who complete 12 hours with a 3.5 GPA are extended invitations to join. The advisor is Dr. Henry Moreland, Kent Campus, phone 387-8140.

Drama TROUPE DE KENT

Now in its fifth year, this drama organization presents three performances annually in the beautiful Kent Campus auditorium. For more information, contact Professor Marilyn DeSimone, Kent Campus, phone 387-8196.

Literary and Art Magazine THE EXPERIENCE

Do you have a special talent for writing? Your work could be selected for publication in FJC's Literary Magazine. The magazine will accept prose, poetry, and short stories for possible publication. Deadline for the next edition is November 12. Entries should include your name and student number. Send materials to Professor Marilyn DeSimone, Kent Campus, Jacksonville, Florida 32205.

MATH OLYMPICS

Mathematically talented students with interests in competing against other students and colleges in the area of advanced mathematical concepts are encouraged to try out for FJC's Math Olympics team. Last year FJC's team was First Runner Up in the University of West Florida Math Olympics contest defeating teams from Louisiana, Alabama, Georgia, and Florida. Interested students should contact Professor Debbie Millard, Kent Campus, phone 387-8187.

Music-Instrumental THE JAZZ ENSEMBLE THE SYMPHONIC BAND

FJC's instrumental groups have enjoyed a reputation for performing with outstanding stars such as Dizzy Gillespie, Ramsey Lewis, Mercer Ellington, Maynard Ferguson, Julie Budd, Vonda Van Dyke, Don Ellis, and others. The groups perform numerous concerts throughout the city as well as performing at FJC's annual Talent Variety Show and the Miss FJC Pageant. FJC's Annual Jazz Festival is always a highlight of the Winter Term. Qualified students should contact Dr. Dale Blackwell, South Campus, phone 646-2010.

BROADWAY SEASON

Featuring four giant musicals plus Neil Simon's current comedy hit. All productions are produced in New York to Broadway quality specifications. This season all five shows will have Jacksonville Premieres.

SEVEN BRIDES FOR SEVEN BROTHERS

It's live and on stage exploding with the excitement and charm of the original MGM movie musical masterpiece. Set in rustic Oregon (1850's) "Seven Brides for Seven Brothers" tells the tale of seven lovesick backwoods brothers who go to woo the town sweethearts away from their beaus. The show features a marvelous musical score (lyrics by Johnny Mercer) dazzling sets and fantastic dancing. It's joyous entertainment that gives the large cast a chance to shout, sing, and dance its way into your heart. Saturday, November 24.

SOPHISTICATED LADIES

A double 1981 Tony Award winning musical, "Sophisticated Ladies" is a sleek song-and-dance show. It combines the stunning music of Duke Ellington with dynamic showmanship. A lavish musical extravaganza with all the elegance, style, and class that you could ever hope for in a Broadway show. According to the New York Times' Frank Rick, "There's a lavishness in this show's physical production (right up to the last spangle on the last top hat) and in its depth of performing talent (right down to the last member of the chorus) that actually squares with current Broadway ticket prices. Ellington who had an extravagant style to go with his genius, would undoubtedly be pleased!" Friday, January 11.

DOONESBURY

"Doonesbury" is the recipient of three 1984 N.Y. Drama Desk nominations including "Best Musical." Gary Trudeau's comic strip comes to life in this new musical comedy. Boopsie, Zonker, Duke, J.J., Jeanie, B.D., Mark, Roland, Honey, and Mike Doonesbury star in a witty, upbeat and warm show complete with snappy music and sassy choreography. The Walden gang has grown up — it's graduation day! The characters not only look like their comic strip counterparts but also sound the part as we always imagined they would! Trudeau promises to update the show periodically to take full advantage of current American politics. Monday, January 21.

GIGI - starring Louis Jourdan and Betsy Palmer

Lerner and Loewe's enchanting French musical comes to the stage in this dazzling new production. Adapted from the award winning film (11 Academy Awards) "Gigi" is the story of a 16 year old girl who is groomed by her grandmother and aunt for the secure affluent and "respectable" life of Paris. Yet, unbeknownst to her relatives, this enchanting young lady has romantic ideas of her own. This production will be savored like a gallery full of Renoirs and Monets bearing the color of carefree turn-of-the-century Paris. Jourdan, who was in the original production returns in the Maurice Chevalier role of Honore. Betsy Palmer co-stars and the show introduces Lisa Howard as "Gigi" to American audiences. Saturday, February 2.

CIVIC AUDITORIUM

BRIGHTON BEACH MEMOIRS

Neil Simon's current Broadway comedy hit recalls his youth in a touching family portrait. Winner of the "1983 Best Play" New York Drama Critics Circle Award plus two 1983 Tony Awards including Gene Saks' outstanding direction, "Brighton Beach Memoirs" is the story of a Jewish family from Brooklyn in the year 1937 as told by its youngest son, 16 year old Eugene Morris Jerome. Eugene is a loveable pest of a kid with a dicy, mincy little step and a sensitive introspective intelligence. He wants to be a writer and the play is his memoir about his parents and older brother, and about his widowed aunt and her two daughters, who live with them. The story is funny, sad, tender, and real. It's clearly the best Neil Simon work in a long time. Saturday, March 9.

LIVELY ARTS SEASON CIVIC AUDITORIUM

All three of these shows have a certain "magical" quality to them. Millions have enjoyed them, but now Jacksonville can enjoy them live and on stage.

THE MANTOVANI ORCHESTRA

You will be magically transported to an age of elegance and style as the Mantovani Orchestra offers a nostalgic and wistful look at a bygone area. The familiar and unmistakably distinctive sound of luxurious cascading strings was the legendary Maestro's hallmark in a career that spanned 35 years, 4 continents, and a sale of over 35 million recordings. "Charmaine," "Greensleeves," "Moulin Rouge," "Swedish Rhapsody" and "Cara Mia" among others will be performed. In addition, the golden tenor voice of Marco Valenti will be featured in a special "Tribute to Mario Lanza." Saturday, January 19.

THE MAGIC OF DAVID COPPERFIELD

Audiences and critics around the world have called David Copperfield the greatest magician of our time. He has redefined this ancient skill to include not only dazzling illusions, but entertaining theatre as well. Vignettes, Broadway style staging and musical background give this act a contemporary and sophisticated theatrical appeal. His celebrated illusions, along with his imaginative use of "theatrics" has led him to be named "Entertainer of the Year" by the American Guild of Variety Artists and "Magician of the Year" by the Academy of Magical Arts. He has broken house records at Caesar's Tahoe, The Las Vegas Hilton, and the MGM Grand. His feats in the past have included a vanishing Ferrari, a vanishing seven-ton Lear jet, and last year on national TV. "the illusion of the century" - the vanishing Statue of Liberty. Presto! Monday, January 28.

LIVELY ARTS SEASON CIVIC AUDITORIUM

SWAN LAKE - HOUSTON BALLET with Orchestra

The magic of Swan Lake features romance, sorcery, treachery, and mystery. Produced by the Houston Ballet, Swan Lake features the music of Tchaikovsky, stunning sets, special effects and the entire 44 member Houston Ballet Company accompanied by the Houston Ballet Orchestra. The company thrilled audiences last season in New York and major European capitals. This season, prior to the Jacksonville engagement, its tour takes it to the prestigious Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C. Under the artistic direction of Ben Stevenson, the company is considered by many to rank with and even surpass the major New York ballet companies. It is by far America's major touring company and provides the longest contract for its dancers of any major ballet company in the United States. The company was the recipient of five gold, silver, and bronze medals in the 1982 International Ballet Competition. An evening not to be missed! Tuesday, March 26.

AMERICAN THEATRE SEASON THE FLORIDA THEATRE

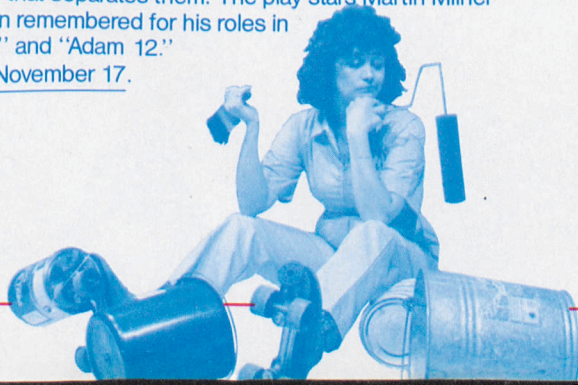

A season of theatrical productions selected for the Florida Theatre stage. Certain works require a more intimate setting and the Florida Theatre is perfect for these outstanding attractions.

A SOLDIER'S PLAY

Winner of the 1982 Pulitzer Prize, the N.Y. Drama Critics Award for "Best American Play," three Obie Awards and The Outer Critics Circle Award for "Best Play," "A Soldier's Play" is a mystery thriller described by critics as "superlative," "powerful" and "magnificent." Set in 1944 at Ft. Neal, Louisiana, it is a compelling who-dunnit that played over 14 months in New York before the current national tour. The play has been selected as one of three American productions to appear in Los Angeles in conjunction with the 1984 Summer Olympics International Arts Festival and as the U.S. representative to the prestigious Edinburgh International Festival in Scotland. The production features the same physical production, the same director, and many of the original New York cast members. Friday, November 9.

MASS APPEAL starring MARTIN MILNER

"Mass Appeal" is a play filled with laughter, conflict, love and understanding. Father Tim Farley is a man who enjoys his sparkling burgundy, his new Mercedes and his weekly visits to the racetrack. He is a popular and comfortable middle-aged priest who has learned to live the system. Along comes Mark Dolson, a young seminarian and idealist who wants to change the world and Father Farley along with it. The sparks fly and the humor crackles as these two men struggle across the gap of age and experience that separates them. The play stars Martin Milner who is often remembered for his roles in "Route 66" and "Adam 12." Saturday, November 17.

AMERICAN THEATRE SEASON THE FLORIDA THEATRE

CHILDREN OF A LESSER GOD

Winner of the 1980 Tony Award for "Best Play," "Children of a Lesser God" is a story of a young speech therapist who joins the staff of a school for the deaf and falls in love with the school's most challenging resident, a young woman who refuses to speak. It is an extraordinary and witty love story of two courageous individuals as the play takes us inside the world of the deaf. The Asolo State Theatre continues its tradition of outstanding drama and returns by popular demand after last season's "Promenade All." Friday, November 30.

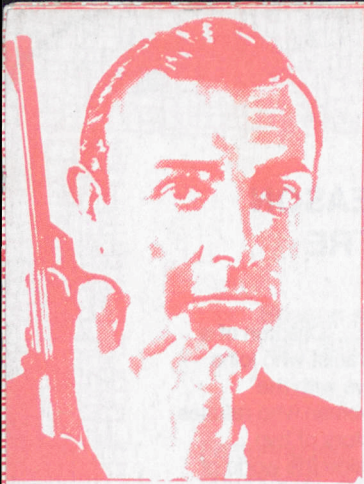

THE HOBBIT - Theatre Sans Fil of Montreal

Adapted from J.R.R. Tolkien's work of imaginative fiction, "The Hobbit" is a tale of fantasy for all ages. The adventure stars Bilbo Baggins, a hobbit, but also includes dwarfs, trolls, and goblins, hideous giant spiders, horrible slimy creatures in underground caves, a magic ring and a 25-foot long monster who has hoarded treasure under a mountain for thousands of years. How can you see all of these "characters" on stage? In short, Theatre Sans Fil has mastered the art of giant puppetry with startling new techniques in fabrication and manipulation. The puppets suspend space, eliminate distance and assume a life and motion that is superhuman. Fantastic special effects and music add the elements needed to provide a riveting theatrical experience for adults and children. The company has been selected as the Quebec Ambassador to the 1984 Summer Olympics International Arts Festival. Sunday, February 17. 3 P.M. performance only.

THE FLYING KARAMAZOV BROTHERS

They don't fly, they are not brothers, they are not from Russia, but they took Broadway by storm during last year's summer season. A mixture of the Marx Brothers, Monty Python, Steve Martin, and a troupe of jugglers would best describe this hilarious musical comedy. "The Karamazov Brothers" amuse and mesmerize with spectacular juggling and quick tongues. They have an endless supply of high spirits — which are wonderfully contagious. Their juggling, including meat cleavers, flying torches and sickles is expert (it has to be). They offer to fellow lunatics of all ages, a very enjoyable time. Friday, February 22.
