THE FILM INSTITUTE OF JACKSONVILLE

The Film Institute of Jacksonville brings a wide variety of films to the community. FCCJ students and employees may attend the screenings on Tuesday evenings at 7:30 p.m. in the main auditorium at the Kent Campus by showing their current term student I.D.

January 30 - LA LECTRICE (THE READER)
(Michel Deville-1988-France-98 min.)
Miou-Miou (ENTRE NOUS) in one of her most comic roles stars as a young woman who rents her services as a professional reader to an eccentric clientele ill-disposed to doing their own page turning. Winner of the Best Film award at the 1988 Montreal Film Festival, nine Cesar nominations and the official French entry for the 1988 Best Foreign Film Oscar.

February 6 - WOMEN ON THE VERGE OF A NERVOUS BREAKDOWN
(Pedro Almodovar-1988-Spain-88 min.)
An energetic, slap-stick spoof of contemporary romance, WOMEN ON THE VERGE is one of the jauntiest and funniest war-of-the-sexes films that's been produced in years. WOMEN ON THE VERGE won numerous European film festival awards and was the official Spanish entry for the 1989 Best Foreign Film Oscar.

February 13 - VARIETY
(Bette Gordon-1984-US-97 min.)
The story of a young woman desperate for work who takes a job selling tickets at a porno theatre. Working in a glass booth and hearing the sounds emanating all day from the screen, she starts to pursue voyeuristic urges for both the films and their customers.

February 20 - BAGDAD CAFE
(Percy Adlon-1987-US-91 min.)
A charming, offbeat comedy about a friendship between a large German woman, Marianne Sagebrecht (SUGARBABY), and a crusty American black woman, CCH Pounder, who owns a truck stop in the Mojave Desert. BAGDAD CAFE won the Berlin Film Critics' 1987 Best Comedy Award and first prize at the 1987 Rio de Janeiro Film Festival.

February 27 - ANOTHER WOMAN
(Woody Allen-1988-US-84 min.)
Allen once again explores the human condition via the inner turmoil of New Yorkers with considerably more optimism than in previous recent films. Gena Rowlands plays a woman who has managed to live her life shielding herself from all emotions, until a series of incidents forces her to take stock. The cast also includes Mia Farrow, Ian Holm, Blythe Danner and Gene Hackman.

March 6 - THE ADVENTURES OF MILO AND OTIS
(Masanori Hata-1989-Japan-76 min.)
A wonderfully anthropomorphic fairy tale about a friendship between a golden-haired cat name Milo and a snub-nosed dog named Otis. Cast entirely by animals and narrated by Dudley Moore, the film follows its two "stars" on a picaresque odyssey through hundreds of miles of wilderness in northern Japan.

March 13 - THE NAVIGATOR: AN ODYSSEY ACROSS TIME
(Vincent Ward-1989-New Zealand-92 min.)
Winner of over 30 international film awards including 18 Australian and New Zealand Oscars, THE NAVIGATOR is a suspenseful fantasy which follows a small band of men in the 14th century on a spiritual quest to ward off the Black Plague only to emerge in a city in New Zealand in 1988. A feast for the eyes as well as the intellect and imagination, THE NAVIGATOR is an engrossing yet frequently humorous film.

March 20 - SUCH A GORGEOUS KID LIKE ME
(Francois Truffaut-1973-France-98 min.)
This black comedy tells the story of a beautiful woman, played by Bernadette Lafont, victimized by society. She seeks revenge against the cruelty inflicted by her parents and lovers by seducing the men who stand in the way of her madcap, larcenous schemes. One of Truffaut's most wonderfully offbeat comedy-mysteries.

March 27 - CHOCOLAT
(Claire Denis-1988-France-105 min.)
A very personal, autobiographical work, CHOCOLAT is a slice-of-life about a young woman's memories of her childhood in the French colony of Cameroon (French West Africa) during the 1950's, where whites are masters and blacks are servants. A film that's about much more than imperialism, CHOCOLAT explores the texture of human lives when buried tensions of race, culture and forbidden sexual desires begin to unravel.

April 3 - HIGH HOPES
(Mike Leigh-1989-Great Britain-99 min.)
A sharp-edged comedy of manners which balances satire about class rigidity in Thatcher England with an openness and generosity of spirit. HIGH HOPES offers a close but humorous look at the working class and contrasts their gritty world with the haves and want-to-haves. The unusually colorful cast of characters were permitted to create their roles largely through improvisation.

REPTILE WORLD WITH MICHAEL SCHWEDICK
HERE IN MARCH.

At an age before most people recognize the role that ecology plays on our lives, a young man began working on a career devoted to educating the public about the importance of reptiles in our world. That man is Michael Schwedick. Born near Munich, Germany in 1954, Michael is the founder and director of Reptile World, Inc., the home of one of the country's largest private reptile collections. He has developed a fascinating, educational program combining a talent for speaking, with the skill for handling large and sometimes dangerous reptiles in a safe, non-threatening manner.

Reptile World with Michael Schwedick is a fast moving, entertaining and totally captivating experience that you will long remember.

APRIL

Jack White, billiards trick-shot-artist, returns to Jacksonville in April and will appear on each campus. Coupling shot trickery with friendly competition, White is a definite crowd pleaser.

EGGROLL

Eggroll is a New Jersey based duo. The band's unique sound captures the feel of a four piece ensemble with use of an electric midi system programmed by Harold Brown, Eggroll's lead keyboard player. Eva Sklar as Eggroll's lead guitarist further compliments the band's uniqueness both musically and visually. Together Eggroll's two key musicians, both graduates of Berklee College of Music, cover a wide range of music from oldies to top 40.
