STUDENT CLUBS & ORGANIZATIONS

One of the highlights of attending college is meeting new people. This can happen in your classes, in the cafeteria or by chance. One of the best ways to meet people, however, is to join or form a student organization. Some of the people you meet could become lifelong friends.

Each campus hosts a unique variety of intercollegiate, special interest, academic and service organizations. The composition of the organizations changes each semester as new students enter college. Below is a list of the current active organizations and the faculty/staff adviser.

New organizations can be formed easily. Chartering an organization is a simple process and involves obtaining a list of seven interested students and a faculty/staff adviser. Your campus student activities office will assist you with this process. Recognized student organizations are eligible for financial assistance from the College.

Meet new friends, pursue an interest or fulfill a dream by getting involved with a student organization. Find out more about FCCJ organizations by contacting the appropriate adviser.

The Student Government Association regularly volunteers for blood drives, the Dorcas Drake Toy Drive, Special Olympics and the United Way, among others and Phi Theta Kappa, works many hours with children with spina bifida. Numerous other student organizations volunteer their time and expertise to assist with a variety of community projects.

STUDENT

VOLUNTEER CENTERS

Florida Community College at Jacksonville students contribute a tremendous amount to the Jacksonville community through their volunteer activities. In recognition, student activities, in partnership with the Student Government Association, has developed campus student volunteer centers. This program is supported by a grant from Florida's Office for Campus Volunteers.

If you are a volunteer, wish to become one, or would like to help lead the volunteer effort on your campus, please contact your campus student activities office to find out about the exciting opportunities available to you. The centers will alert students to volunteer opportunities, provide educational materials about community service and monitor the volunteer hours students contribute in the community. Don't be left out! Contact student activities today to help make Jacksonville a better community.

THE EXPERIENCE

FCCJ's student literary magazine is published once a year and contains work produced solely by students. Any currently enrolled student may submit literary work directly to Marilyn DeSimone at Kent Campus or through campus student activities offices. In addition to literary work, art and photography is also included.

Interested in becoming more involved in producing the magazine? Volunteer to serve on the editorial board. Interested students should contact Marilyn DeSimone at 381-3496 or B.J. Hausman at 381-3674. Copies of last year's magazine are still available in any campus student activities office.

PERFORMING

GROUPS

Students with musical or dramatic talent might enjoy participating in one of FCCJ's performing groups.

The FCCJ Chorale Jazz Ensemble and Symphonic Band perform locally and throughout the Southeast.

Students from any campus may participate in the many aspects of theatrical production. Collegewide productions are full scale and allow participation for actors and stage hands in a community theater setting. Campus productions enable students to develop their talent through acting, directing, stagecraft and costuming.

Each spring the performing groups join forces to produce a musical. This past year's production of "Paint Your Wagon" brought rave reviews throughout the College and community alike.

▶ Bill Fry "A different kind of juggler"

Over 150 colleges have enjoyed his act. Rodney Dangerfield, Pat and Debbie Boone, Glen Campbell, and Yakov Smirnoff have all closed his show. Six Flags over Georgia, Great Adventures and Walt Disney World loved his stuff. He has taught thousands to juggle with his workshops. He was even an International Juggling Association gold medal winner. Lookout—there's comedy in the air with Bill Fry.

Merriweather performs music based in Celtic and American traditions blending old and new acoustic sounds. The unusual timbres of the hammered dulcimer and wooden flute, combined with the more familiar sounds of mandolin and guitar, create a distinctive sound with additional spice provided by octave mandolin, penny whistle, wooden piccolo and stodi box.

The notes Chris Smither coaxes from his blue acoustic electric guitar are at once ancient and utterly contemporary. His vocals encompass an emotional breadth impossible for most performers. It's a rough voice, a gritty voice, a voice that can howl and shout one moment, coax and soothe and reach deep inside the listener the next. On last year's Bonnie Raitt "Collection," only one writer (aside from Raitt herself) had more than one song included—Chris Smither. Her signature tunes, "Love Me Like a Man" and "I Feel The Same" are Smither compositions.

The Campus Voice

Florida Community College at Jacksonville

Everybody's welcome!

FCCJ's student newspaper, The Campus Voice, is an excellent forum to display your talents. Students who wish to be columnists, photographers, artists, cartoonists and reporters on a freelance basis are encouraged to contact the editorial office at 633-8409. Assignments are based on your availability; therefore, scheduling is very flexible but dependability is a must.

The newspaper is published during the fall, winter and spring terms. A magazine that serves as a back-to-school orientation guide is also produced and distributed at the beginning of the academic year.

The main office is located at the Downtown Campus with bureaus at other campuses coming in the near future.

So you want to be a decision maker (editor)?

Editors decide the content of the newspaper. Students wishing to be editor-in-chief, managing, news, photo, copy, features, entertainment, sports or page editor should have completed or be currently enrolled in JOU 2100 Newspaper Reporting and Writing. Other positions are production manager and office manager. If appointed, students will receive a scholarship and/or hourly wage. Contact The Campus Voice adviser at 633-8157.

Students will have an opportunity to work on the most up-to-date desktop publishing equipment and software and will gain valuable experience that will help secure future jobs.

Need to get something off your chest?

Letters to the editor are encouraged on topics of interest to the College community. Letters should be typewritten, signed and a telephone number included for verification purposes. This information must be included although names may be withheld upon request.
