Trinidad Tripoli Steel Band

Warm up the new millennium with a little steel and reggae! From Port-of-Spain, Trinidad, to a world tour, this amazing group of performers plays a repertoire of music that ranges from classical to rock and roll...on oil drums. This feat has attracted audiences not only because of its oil drums, but also because of the unbelievable fidelity and artistic accomplishments with which they render each concert or dance, whether it be modern, classical or their native reggae Calypso. The Calypso numbers are in a class by themselves, combined with exciting dancing and chanting as only the natives of Trinidad are capable of doing.

Born from the desperate days following World War II when it was not possible to get their instruments or money to play their Calypso music, the natives of Trinidad discovered that abandoned oil drums could be used for musical tuning. That bandoned the original steel drum band, and now Trinidad Tripoli has played such pockets of sophistication as the Rockefeller Plaza, Central Park and Lincoln Center in New York City. Now's your chance to see them at FCCJ on January 18th and 19th.

Barbara Bailey Hutchison

Grammy award winning singer/songwriter Barbara Bailey Hutchison brings her finely crafted songs and clever wit back to FCCJ in March. Her voice is familiar to millions of television and radio listeners across the country. The hundreds of commercials she has sung for Mc Donald's, Hallmark Cards, and other national advertisers attest to her vocal prowess.

Believing "pigeon holes are for birds", she defies categorization. Some draw comparisons to Shown Colvin or Jewel, while others hear a likeness to Joni Mitchell or Mary Chapin Carpenter. Her show is fresh and energetic, offering music and stories that serve to inspire and amuse. Her music speaks to issues of tolerance and human rights, as well as personal relationships. Hutchison started Dakota Records, the independent record label responsible for eight of her 13 albums, because she "...just didn't fit the major label mold", and she wanted to maintain more control over the content and production of her music.

In addition to receiving the music industry's highest recognition, a Grammy award, Hutchison has been voted "Best Solo Performer" and "Best Acoustic Performer" by a national magazine poll of colleges and universities throughout the United States and Canada. She says she's comfortable with her career, happy to be writing meaningful songs, and to be able to present them to intelligent and attentive listeners. She loves nothing better than sharing her songs telling their stories, and joking with her audience. Should her music receive the radio exposure it deserves, the rest of the world will learn what her fans already know: Barbara and her music are full of grace, humor, hopefulness, and most of all, deep humanity. See her on campus March 14th and 15th.

March is Women's History Month.

Karen Goldberg

Now with six records, five tours of Europe and one of Australia, singer/songwriter Karen Goldberg has appeared with 10,000 Maniacs, The B52's, Grace Slick, Randy Newman, Carrot Top, Leo Kottke, Ritchie Havens and more, and her smooth singing, innovative guitar work, and tongue-in-cheek humor is bound to be one of the highlights of Women's History Month. Both funny and poignant, Karen's Lillith Music show tackles issues of concern to most women (and the men in their lives) like "PMS", "Biological Clock", and "House of Marriage". In addition, her show explores the treatment of topics like independence, career, relationships, family, sex and love, with songs by favorite contemporary female songwriters.

Karen also presents "No Strings Attached", a talk about self management and independence in the music business and beyond. More and more women in the music business are choosing to run their own record labels and manage their own careers. In this candid, open talk, Karen takes you down the often twisted path of alternative approaches to success in the music business. See how these alternatives can be applied to many other independent business endeavors. Topics include goal setting, time management, organization, prioritizing, delegating, building a resume and promotional materials, and using available resources (library, bookstores, internet), followed by some simple, thought-provoking exercises to help target individual career goals. Karen will be on campus March 21-23.

Noel Freidline Quintet

Touring throughout the Southeast, Jacksonville's own Noel Freidline Quintet has caused quite a stir from Miami to Nashville and beyond. They've toured Europe, performing in Holland's North Sea Jazz Festival and Switzerland's Montreux and Brissago Jazz Festivals. In April they return to FCCJ for a repeat performance.

While having earned the respect and praise of the jazz community, the quintet has also developed a large audience of people who do not consider themselves "jazz enthusiasts". Never compromising their musical integrity, the attraction comes from the irresistible combination of musicianship and showmanship. See them on campus April 12, 13, 18 and 20th.

Leadership Development

Get a leg up on your classmates and fellow job seekers by participating in our leadership development workshops! Each campus offers a series of leadership workshops that cover topics like motivation, conflict resolution, goal setting, time management, and even the leadership lessons of Dr. Seuss. Check the calendar for workshops on your campus, or call your campus activities office listed on the inside cover for more information.

FCCJ Performing Groups

Students with musical or dramatic talent might enjoy participating in one of FCCJ's performing groups. The FCCJ Chorale, Jazz Ensemble and Symphonic Band perform locally and throughout the Southeast. The Jubilee Singers perform gospel music and the Galaxy Girls Dance Ensemble are featured at the half-time of many College athletic events.

Students from any campus may participate in the many aspects of theatrical production as well. Collegewide productions are full scale and allow participation for actors and stage hands in a community theater setting. Campus productions enable students to develop their talent through acting, directing, stagecraft and costuming. Contact the appropriate person below for your particular interest.

How can you get involved? Write us a letter. Want to air your opinion? Send a letter to the editor; maybe you'll see it printed on the editorial page. More involved than that? Volunteer to write an article, cover a game, take pictures, draw a cartoon, or design a page. No experience is needed because we'll help you over the rough spots. All it takes is a word from you. Or better yet, compete for a job. The jobs range from editor to office manager. For most of them you'll need either a journalism course or newspaper experience. The pay ranges from talent grants to weekly wages, and it's great experience!

Call the newsroom at 633-8409 or the adviser, Robert Blade, at 633-8157, or drop by Downtown Campus, Room 1057. Can't make it by? Write The Campus Voice at 101 W. State Street, Jacksonville, FL 32202.

...everything you wanted to know about graduation, but didn't know who to ask...

Let's start with a few definitions...

Graduation—the completion of all requirements necessary for your academic program.

Commencement—the formal ceremony at which degrees or certificates are conferred, held at the end of spring term.

Honors—graduating with an all-college cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 3.5-3.74.

High Honors—graduating with an all-college cumulative GPA of 3.75 or higher.

Since the commencement program is printed before spring term grades are recorded, honor graduates are identified based on their GPA at the beginning of spring term.

Rehearsal—forget it; we don't have one!

Now the basic facts...

When—college credit commencement is Friday, May 12, 7:30pm. Adult High School and GED commencement is Thursday, May 18, 7:30pm. Information about when to report for the ceremony and how to confirm your attendance will be mailed to graduates' homes in early April. Where—Jacksonville Veteran's Memorial Coliseum, 1145 E. Adam Street.

Who—anyone may participate who has graduated at the end of Summer Term '99, Fall Term '99 or Spring Term 2000. Caps and Gowns—available for purchase in your campus bookstore in April.

Graduation Announcements—also available from the campus bookstore in April. Neither announcements nor tickets are required for admission to the coliseum. Your family and friends are welcome to attend the ceremony.

Graduation Photos—official photographers will take your picture as you cross the stage and a proof will be mailed to you. Photo purchase information will be included with the proof if you wish to buy copies.

Who to call for information—for questions regarding applying for graduation and approval for graduation, contact student records...

Downtown: 633-8230

Kent: 381-3559

North: 766-6789

South: 646-2124
